

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What age group does Bakehaus cater for?

For safety reasons, we can only provide cooking lessons for children 3 years old and over.

Can I assist my child whilst in the kitchen?

Due to safety and capacity reasons, we have an age restriction and will require children to be able to participate independently

Are parents allowed inside?

We have designed a kitchen especially for kids - Bakehaus is an adult free zone. We have provided adults with a table just outside the Bakehaus. Time to sit back and enjoy a bite to eat or something to drink while the kids get busy cooking up a storm.

Can we take photos?

Yes definitely, we allocate photo time at the beginning and during the party session. Please speak to the cooking instructor if additional time is required.

Can we take food home?

Yes, provided that the online waiver is signed by the parent of the child prior to the Bakehaus party commencing.

I am worried that the children will be hungry, are they going to be provided with enough food?

Children will be able to eat all the food that they have made along with starters such as fairy bread, fruit cup, popcorn and fries. Additional platters can be ordered at an extra cost.

How long before the party begins should we arrive?

As there is lots of cooking to do, we ask that guests arrive between 5-10 minutes prior to the party time. Parties will commence strictly ON TIME!

What if my child has allergies?

Please inform the Events Team upon making a booking if any of the guests have a food allergy in order to make alternative arrangements. We can cater for all allergies.

Is there a minimum amount of children for the parties?

A minimum of 10 children per party and maximum of 15.

Can I decorate Bakehaus, what decorations can I bring?

Decorations are welcomed however please be advised that decorations must not obstruct the cooking area or walk ways. A trestle table can be provided for the birthday cake upon request. Please note cake stands and candles are not provided by Rabbit Hole.

Can we bring our own food?

There is no outside food within Rabbit Hole however we welcome birthday cakes.

Can we stay and play after the party?

Definitely, as part of the cooking package there is unlimited access to play, so if you like, stay and play until closing time!

As there is a no shoe policy at Rabbit Hole, does my child bring their own shoes to Bakehaus?

Children will be provided with some comfortable crocs to wear.
